

PREFACE.

This edition of the Annotated Code of Maryland follows the same plan as that of previous editions.

The numbering of the existing Articles has not been changed but several new Articles have been added. Due to the numerous new laws and sections enacted since the 1924 edition, it has been necessary to change the numbering of the sections of many Articles. The number of the sections, as they appeared in the Codes of 1924, 1912, 1904 and 1888, appears above each section as well as a reference to the Act or Acts enacting or amending the section.

The Constitution of Maryland and the Public General Laws are annotated through 175 Maryland, 307 U. S., 83 Law Edition, 107 Federal Reports (2nd Series), and 29 Federal Supplement.

Care should be exercised to ascertain whether the decisions relating to any particular section or statute deal with the same in its present form. Decisions which do not refer in terms to a section or statute are not included in the annotations in this Code.

Grateful acknowledgment is made of the assistance rendered by Mrs. Nellie M. Webster, Miss Ella S. Hitchcock, Mr. Carroll N. Clary and Mr. C. Keating Bowie, Jr., in the preparation and indexing of this publication.
