

CHAP. 99.

CHAPTER 98.

Passed Mar. 18, 1836 An act to alter and amend the Constitution and Form of Government of this State, so far as it relates to the representation in the House of Delegates, from the City of Baltimore.

Elect four delegates

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That on the first Monday of October, eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, and on the same day annually thereafter, the citizens of Baltimore city, having the necessary qualification of voters under the Constitution, shall vote for and elect four persons as members of the House of Delegates, instead of two, as is now provided for by the Constitution.

Confirmation required

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the next General Assembly of Maryland, the same shall thenceforth become a part of the Constitution and Form of Government of this State, and all such parts of the existing Constitution as are repugnant to, or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall be repealed, abrogated and annulled.

CHAPTER 99.

Passed Feb. 8, 1836 An act to authorise the improvement of an Island therein named.

Preamble

WHEREAS, it appears to this General Assembly that Robert Gale and John Donahoo are owners, by grant from the State of Maryland, of a small tract of land or island containing nearly three acres, called Edmondson's Island or Shad Battery, situate at or near the mouth of the Susquehanna river, and between three and four miles from the town of Havre de Grace; And whereas, it also appears that the same may be filled up and improved without prejudice to the navigation of the Susquehanna or of the Chesapeake Bay:—Therefore,

May fill up and improve

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Robert Gale and John Donahoo, or their
