

19. The sheriff shall, before the jury proceed to act, administer to each an oath that he will justly and impartially value the damages, and if any of the jurors summoned do not attend, the sheriff shall immediately summon as many jurors as shall be necessary with those in attendance to finish the panel of twenty, and from them each party or his agent, or if either be not present in person or by agent, the sheriff, for him, may strike off four jurors, and the remaining twelve shall act as a jury of inquest of damages.

20. The jury in estimating the damages, shall take into estimate the benefit resulting to the owner from the opening and laying out said streets, lanes or alleys, through, along or near to the property of said owner, but only in the extinguishment of the claims for damages; and the jury shall reduce their inquisition to writing, and shall sign and seal the same, and it shall then be returned by the sheriff to the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county, and shall be confirmed by said court at its next session, if no sufficient cause to the contrary be shown, and when confirmed shall be recorded by said clerk, at the expense of said commissioners.

21. If said inquisition be set aside, the said court may direct another to be taken in the same manner as the first; every inquisition shall describe the property taken or the bounds of the land condemned, and the quantity and duration of the interest in the same, therein valued, and such valuation when paid or tendered to the owner of the property or his legal representatives, shall entitle the said commissioners to the estate, use and interest in the same so valued for the purposes aforesaid, as fully as if the same had been conveyed by the owner, and the valuation, if not received from the said commissioners when tendered, may at any time thereafter be received, with costs, by the owner or his legal representatives.

22. The said president and commissioners shall have power to levy and collect taxes in said town not exceeding in any one year thirty cents in the hundred dollars, on the assessable property of said village; and they shall once in every five years,
