LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES,

RELATING TO THE

Navy and Marine Corps,

FROM THE FORMATION OF THE GOVERNMENT TO 1865:

To which are Prefixed the Constitution of the U. S. with an Index thereto,
And a Synopsis of the Legislation of Congress, respecting Naval Affairs, during the Revolutionary War.

WITH AN APPENDIX,

CONTAINING THE

Naval Legislation of the United States,

To the End of the Second Session of the 38th Congress.

COMPILED BY JOHN F. CALLAN,

Late Clerk to the Military Committee U. S. Senate.

This work will contain all the Laws which have been passed in relation to the Navy and Marine Corps since the formation of the Government, arranged in chronological order, with full notes and references, embracing Decisions of the Supreme Court, in many cases, and a copious Index and Table of Contents. The laws now in force are printed in larger type than those out of existence, but they are nearly all published in extenso, to show the gradations through which these branches of our Military service have passed to their present condition.

✎ On receipt of $6, in current funds, the Complete Work, or $2, the Appendix, will be sent, pre-paid, to any part of the U. S. ✎ Early orders respectfully solicited.
