APPEALS FROM COURTS OF EQUITY.

1868, c. 102 repeals section 25 and substitutes the following therefor:

SEC. 25. Whenever any court having equity jurisdiction shall refuse to grant an injunction according to the prayer of the bill or petition filed in the cause, an appeal may be taken from such refusal by any party aggrieved thereby, and such right of appeal shall not be prejudiced by the filing of an answer to the said bill or petition on behalf of any opposing party, nor by the taking of depositions in reference to the allegations of the bill or petition to be read on the hearing of the application for an injunction; and the said appeal shall be heard on a transcript of the said bill or petition, with such other papers or proceedings in the cause as may be necessary for the purposes of the appeal, and so soon as conveniently may be after such transcript shall have been filed in the court of appeals.

1868, c. 102.
In cases of injunctions.

In force and approved March 7, 1868.
