

127. Collector to be protected in executing the duties of his office; right of redemption by owner; purchaser, remedies of, to recover possession of property bought.
128. Burgess, powers and duties of.
129. Other officers that are necessary to execute powers of said corporation, how appointed.
130. Money arising from fines and penalties under ordinances of corporation, how to be appropriated.
131. Fines and penalties imposed under ordinances of corporation, how recoverable.
132. Appeal allowed from decision of burgess or justice of the peace, what bond to stay execution upon judgment necessary.
133. Persons failing to pay fine for violation of ordinances to be committed to jail; duty of sheriff.
134. Burgess to have power to issue subpœnas for witnesses, and to compel attendance by attachment; fees allowed.
135. What persons found within town, burgess or justices of the peace may commit to almshouse.
136. Corporation shall not issue any note, token, certificate or evidence of debt, to circulate as currency.
137. Stock running at large within town of, commissioners authorized to pass ordinances to prohibit.
138. May contract with Emmitsburg water company for supply of water to town; what amount to be paid for use of water annually.
139. Water tax to pay interest on cost of supplying town with water, not to exceed what.
- Fences.
140. Joint fences, repair and height of.
141. Person refusing to repair his portion of joint fence, proceedings for repair of, by other party.
142. Discontinuance of joint fences, notice for.
- Fish.
143. Throwing lime or poisonous substances in streams of Frederick county; penalty
144. Person refusing to pay fine imposed by preceding section, to be committed to jail.
145. Unlawful to take fish in Monocacy river or its tributaries, by seines, drag-nets, fish-pots, &c; proviso.
146. Violation of preceding section; penalty.
147. Constable, duty of, whose attention is called to violation of section 145; penalty.
148. Costs, by whom to be paid, upon failure to convict persons charged with violation of section 145.
149. Appeal allowed from judgments under provisions of sections 145 and 146, bond to stay execution upon such judgments.
150. Unlawful to catch fish during May in waters of Frederick county, Potomac river excepted.
151. Violation of preceding section; penalty; appeal allowed
152. Frederick county exempted from operation of certain of the provisions of article 39 of code of public general laws, title "fish and fisheries."
- Frederick.
153. Citizens of, are a body corporate, by name of "The Mayor and Aldermen of Frederick," general powers of.