

WILD FOWL.

1880, ch. 176.

244. It shall not be lawful for any persons, not actually residents of Anne Arundel, Prince George's St. Mary's, Charles and Calvert counties, to shoot or trap upon the waters of the Patuxent river, its tributaries, or the marshes bordering upon the same, any goose, duck, snipe, ortolan or other wild fowl.

Ibid.

245. Any person who may be found violating the provisions of the preceding section, shall, upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of the county wherein the offence was committed, be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars for the first offence, and not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars for each and any subsequent offence; and the boat, gun, ammunition, and all other property found in the possession or use of such person at the time of the arrest shall be held until such fine is paid, one-half of said fine to go to the informer, the other half to the school fund of the county in which the offence was committed.

1876, ch. 78.

246. No person shall kill or shoot at wild fowl in, on or over the waters of Anne Arundel county, or the waters of Chesapeake bay, within the limits of said county, from any boat, box or contrivance of any kind, with any kind of gun which cannot be discharged from the shoulder at arms length and without a rest; and any person violating this section, on conviction thereof, shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each offence.

Ibid.

247. No owner, master, hirer, borrower, or employee of any owner or other person, shall use or employ any sink-box for the purpose of shooting at wild fowl therefrom, in the waters of Anne Arundel county and of Chesapeake bay, lying and being within the limits of said county, without a license for the use of said sink-box as provided in the three succeeding sections.
