

lished once in each of such two newspapers in said city, of opposite political faith as shall be designated by the city council, giving a full and particular statement of all receipts and disbursements. He shall have power to remove any of the officers, agents or servants appointed by him, for neglect or violation of any duties pertaining to their respective offices, and shall appoint others in their stead, and shall report such removal and appointment to the city council at its next regular meeting, for its approval or disapproval; he shall have general supervision of the city, and shall submit, from time to time, to the council, such recommendations as he shall deem proper; by virtue of his office, he shall also be chairman of the trustees of the sinking fund and board of health, and shall discharge all the duties pertaining to such chairmanship; and he shall receive for his services an annual salary of five hundred dollars.

1878, ch 484.

63. The city council shall have power to pass all such ordinances, not contrary to the constitution and laws of this State, as they may deem necessary for the good government of the city; they may pass ordinances to remove all nuisances and obstructions from the streets, lanes and alleys, and from any lots adjoining thereto, within the limits of the city; they may pass ordinances to remove or cause to be removed, any houses or other buildings that may, in their judgment, become dangerous; they may pass ordinances to cause the streets, lanes and alleys to be paved, graded, repaired, drained or sewered; they may erect or establish houses of correction, hospitals or pest-houses within or without the city, if necessary, and pass ordinances for the government of the same; they may pass all such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the protection and preservation of the health of the city and its inhabitants, pass all ordinances necessary for the preservation and protection of any of the city's property, rights and privileges; they may direct in what part of the city buildings of wood shall not be erected; they may erect and establish market-houses, and regulate markets, and pass ordinances for regulating the sales of meats, vegetables, fruits, butter, eggs and poultry, therein, and confine the sales thereof in said city to the limits of the market places during the hours of mar-