

1900, ch. 371.

31. Any person violating the preceding section shall, on conviction, pay a fine of not less than five dollars or more than twenty dollars for each and every otter, mink, raccoon or muskrat trapped, caught, killed or in his possession, contrary to the provision of the preceding section; and in default of payment of fine or fines imposed hereunder, together with the costs, the offender shall be committed to jail for not less than ten or more than thirty days for each offense; one-half of all fines to go to the informer. The provisions of this and the preceding section shall not apply to Harford, Cecil, Charles, Anne Arundel, Carroll, St. Mary's and Baltimore counties.
