

1888, art. 39, sec. 24. 1874, ch. 80, sec. 23 A.

24. No vessel, float, raft or boat of any description, unless compelled to do so by stress of weather or other unavoidable accident, shall be anchored or stayed in the berth or haul of any regularly hauled fishing shore in the Patuxent river and remain thus anchored for the space of half an hour when the weather will permit the departure of such vessel, raft, float or boat after being warned to depart therefrom by the owner or occupant of said fishery.

Ibid. sec. 25. 1874, ch. 80, sec. 23 B.

25. Any person violating the preceding section shall pay to owner of said fishery a fine of twenty dollars for each offense, and every hour the vessel, float or boat continues after the half hour mentioned in the preceding section shall be considered a new and separate offense.

Ibid. sec. 26. 1874, ch. 80, sec. 23 C.

26. The captain or owner of the vessel, float or boat referred to in the two preceding sections shall be liable to pay said fine, and the vessel, float or boat so anchored and stayed as above mentioned shall also be liable to be seized and sold to pay any fines imposed under the preceding section.

Ibid. sec. 27. 1874, ch. 80, sec. 23 D.

27. If any such vessel, float or boat shall be wilfully, wantonly and maliciously or from gross negligence sailed through any seine extended in any of said fisheries, the skipper, captain or other person commanding such vessel, float or boat shall pay to the owner or holder of such seine not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars at the discretion of the justice of the peace trying the case.

Ibid. sec. 28. 1874 ch 80, sec. 23 E.

28. If any person shall wilfully and maliciously put any stake, log, stone, ballast or other obstruction in the berth or haul of any fishery, he shall pay a fine not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars, at the discretion of the justice of the peace trying the case.

Ibid. sec. 29. 1888, ch. 332, sec. 1.

29. It shall not be lawful for any person to catch or take fish in the Patuxent river, or its tributaries, with purse seines except for food purposes.
