1906, ch. 32, sec. 1

1. From and after February 27, 1906, all institutions in the counties of this State which are maintained by the county for the care and custody of the indigent poor shall be known under the name and style of the county home, for the respective counties; that is to say, the institution now known as the almshouse of Allegany county, shall be called the Allegany county home, and so with the almshouses in all other counties of the State.

Ibid. sec. 2.

2. It shall not be lawful for the trustees of the poor of the city of Baltimore, or the county commissioners or trustees of the poor of any of the counties of this State to receive into or retain in any county home any child between three and sixteen years of age for a longer period than ninety days, unless such child be an unteachable idiot, an epileptic or a paralytic, or be
