

Not lawful. SEC. 2. It shall not be lawful for any person to kill or destroy any pheasant between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of August, snare or in any way entrap any pheasant at any season of the year whatsoever, under the penalty of five dollars for each and every pheasant so killed, taken or destroyed.

Penalty.

Not lawful. SEC. 3. It shall not be lawful for any person to kill or destroy any partridge between the first day of January and the first day of November, under the penalty of five dollars for each and every partridge so killed, taken or destroyed.

Penalty.

Penalty. 4. No person shall, at any season of the year, wilfully destroy the eggs or nests of any of the birds above named, under the penalty of two dollars for each and every offence.

Evidence to convict. 5. The possession, by any person in the county, of any of the birds above named, shot, killed or in anywise destroyed, shall be prima facie evidence to convict the person having such possession of having done such shooting, killing or destroying.

Not lawful. 6. It shall not be lawful for any person to kill or take any wild turkey by means of any blind, trap, snare, net, or device whatsoever, between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of September in each year, under a penalty of five dollars for each and every wild turkey so killed, taken or destroyed.

Penalty.

Fines recoverable. 7. The fines, hereinbefore provided for, shall be recoverable in the name of the State, before any justice of the peace, one half for the benefit of the informer, and one half for the benefit of the county school fund, and said justice imposing such fines shall have power to commit to the county jail for the space of ten days, any person convicted under the preceding sections and refusing to pay such fine; provided, however, any defendant thinking himself aggrieved by the decision of said justice, may appeal to the Circuit Court of said county, and have said charge tried before a jury.

Power to commit.

May appeal.

Duty of constable and bailiffs.

8. It shall be the duty of the constable and bailiffs of the several election districts of the county to ar-