

below grade upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the two companies, and in case they cannot agree then the said Baltimore and Delta Railroad Company may condemn a way across said other railroad in the manner and upon the conditions hereinabove provided for the condemnation of a way over real estate; provided that nothing herein contained shall be taken to restrain the implied powers of said Baltimore and Delta Railroad Company.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That said railway company may demand and receive for the transportation of passengers on said road not exceeding five cents per mile, and for the transportation of property not exceeding fifteen cents per ton per mile, when the same is transported a distance of thirty miles or more; and in case the same is transported for a less distance than thirty miles, twenty cents per ton may be charged, unless otherwise provided by law.

Amounts chargeable

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the said railway company shall have power to borrow money on the credit of the corporation to an amount not exceeding its authorized capital stock at a rate of interest to be agreed upon by the respective parties, the interest thereon to be paid semi-annually, and to issue bonds therefor in sums not less than fifty dollars each, and to secure the payment of said bonds and their interest by executing and delivering to such trustee or trustees as they may select a mortgage or mortgages of all or any part of the road, property, rights, liberties and franchises of said railway company. And the said railroad company shall be empowered to issue for an amount not exceeding in the aggregate two hundred thousand dollars negotiable promissory notes bearing its corporate seal and signed by its president and countersigned by its secretary, and to pledge its bonds for the payment of said notes; provided that the whole amount borrowed upon said notes and other securities shall not exceed the authorized capital stock of said company hereinbefore mentioned.

Borrow money on credit.

Negotiable promissory notes.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That said railway company may at any time, by means of subscription to the capital stock of any other company or otherwise, as the board of directors may determine, aid such