

CHAPTER 16.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sections 1 and 14 of Chapter 484 of the Acts of 1937, entitled "An Act to authorize and empower the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland, in their discretion, to borrow an amount not exceeding One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00) and to issue and sell coupon bonds therefor, to be known as "Dorchester County School Bonds of 1937", provided that the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland, are able to obtain an agreement with the United States Government for a grant in the amount of forty-five per cent (45%) of the estimated cost of the building, enlarging, remodeling, improving, and equipping program hereinafter provided for, and to give authority to the County Commissioners of Dorchester County, Maryland, to accept such grant from the United States Government, if obtainable; the proceeds from the sale of said coupon bonds, after the expenses of the issuance of said bonds have been deducted, to be used for the purpose of erecting a public school building for white children, to be known as the new Cambridge Seminary, to be built on the old premises where the old Seminary is now located, or to purchase or exchange land for a new site for same, and for enlarging, remodeling, improving and equipping the East Cambridge School for white children, or to build a new East Cambridge School, and for enlarging, remodeling, improving and equipping the Secretary school for white children, or to build a new Secretary school, and for improving and equipping the Eldorado school for white children, and for improving and equipping the Hooper Island High School for white children, and for improving and equipping the Hudson school for white children, and for enlarging and equipping the Crapo High School for white children, and to erect and equip a new school for colored children in Cambridge, and to purchase a site therefor, if necessary, and to erect and equip a new school for colored children at Reids Grove, consisting of one room, and to purchase a site therefor, if necessary, and to repair and improve the county schools for children, and to be expended for a public playground in the City of Cambridge, all of said buildings to be so erected, buildings to be enlarged, remodeled, improved and equipped to be in the discretion of the Commissioners hereinafter named, and the sites so purchased, if any, to be in the discretion of the said respective Commissions, but subject to the approval of the