

Pay excess of fees. SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the Treasurer of the State of Maryland be and he is hereby authorized and directed to pay to the County Commissioners of Carroll county in each and every year such excess of fees as may be paid into the Treasury of the State after the first day of December, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-one, by the clerk of the Circuit Court for Carroll county, being the amount of fees received by said clerk in excess of his compensation for the discharge of his duties and for the expenses of his offices; and further, that the sum of money so paid by the Treasurer to the said commissioners shall be applied by them exclusively for the purpose of paying the interest on the bonds authorized to be issued by this act, and if sufficient for the purpose of also paying the principal of said bonds; and further, that the payment of said excess of fees by said Treasurer to the said commissioners shall continue to be made until said bonds shall have been fully paid and satisfied, and no longer; and further, that the said county commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to levy annually on the assessable property of said county a tax sufficient to pay the semi annual interest on said bonds less the amount annually received by them from the Treasurer of the State as aforesaid, if any, and shall also levy, when necessary, for such sum as may be requisite to pay the principal of said bonds as the same may accrue when due; said levy to be designated on the records of the office of said commissioners and on the face of said bonds as the Court House Repair Fund.

How applied.

Levy annually.

Exempt from taxation. SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the bonds authorized by this act shall be exempt from all taxation, and that the interest on said bonds shall be receivable in payment of county taxes.

Effective. SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved May 31, 1882.