

1 but let me go back and talk to the attorneys; and if they 2 have something by way of strong argument, far be it from 3 me to argue with this group. I am not an attorney. I
4 would be glad to mail it, bring it in, leave it with you
5 or something of that sort.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: I would certainly say it ought 7 to be sent to Mr. Brooks, who would transmit it to the 8 appropriate committees.

9 MR. RAVER: I will be glad to do so.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Do you have any other questions?

11 DR. JENKINS: Yes. My second question is on 12 your proposed change and addition to Article III. It is 13 no secret that you have my vote for retaining this prin-
14 ciple in the Constitution.

15 MR. RAVER: Thank you.

16 DR. JENKINS: It seems to me it has worked very 17 well, as far as I know it has worked very well with the 18 President's statement, shall be included in the statement
19 without revision, and that even if the Budget Bureau calls
20 the State Superintendent of Education in and says, Here, 21 I question your figures, the testimony shows that the
