

1 people starving to death anywhere in the United States. I
2 think they are getting quite a fair share. Their pressure
3 groups are well organized.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: I think it's fair then, if you
5 say they fare right well, if there are no other questions,
6 I think Dr. Sensenbaugh is champing at the bit over there
7 to answer, and I've been very frankly looking forward to 8 this presentation. I hope you will stay.

9 MR. DONAHO: I would like to, but let's get 10 going. If you want me to stay, I'll stay.

11 DR. JAMES A. SENSENBAUGH: This is just a
12 simple prepared statement that I think summarizes the point
13 of view. If I might, I will just read it to you.

14 THE CHAIRMAN: By all means.

15 DR. SENSENBAUGH: "The State Department of 16 Education appreciate the opportunity of being heard by your 17 Committee on State Finance and Taxation relative to Article
18 3, Section 52 of the Maryland Constitution as provisions
19 therein pertain to financing of the public schools.

20 "We feel that the provisions of the present
21 Constitution are sound and make for satisfactory development
