

1 MR. CLAGETT: On that point, Mr. Chairman, can
2 we put it over until Wednesday morning, so our Committee
3 can meet Tuesday night?

4 THE CHAIRMAN: We'll give a special dispensation
5 to your Committee, but to none of the others.

6 MR. CLAGETT: It's a very poor salve, but I'll
7 accept it.

8 MR. SAYRE: At this point, Mr. Chairman, I don't
9 see how I can be there. Is it possible now to present a
10 vote in favor of unicameralism?

11 THE CHAIRMAN: I would hesitate to do this be-
12 cause we have decided that a person not present should not
13 be entitled to vote.

14 MR. SCANLAN: Mr. Chairman, even though Mr.
15 Sayre's vote is not the same as mine, I move for an excep-
16 tion. We have discussed bicameralism versus cameralism,

17 If he isn't qualified to cast a vote now, I
18 don't know when he'll ever be.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: My point is the same privilege
20 would have to/extended to every other absent Member of the 21 Commission and I would fear that there would be a request
