

“ . . . the publication of every book which has issued from printing house or Scriptorium is an event in the spiritual history of the human race, and more particularly in the spiritual history of the country and city in which it appears, and . . . therefore a record of the publication of books ought to be kept.”

—A.W. POLLARD in The London Mercury for February 1921.