The House of Delegates resolved to have this bill printed in the Maryland Gazette and the Baltimore newspapers and to have 1000 copies distributed as handbills. It is likely that either this item or number 372 was printed in Baltimore. The Library of Congress copy contains on the the verso of the second leaf a dialogue by John Kersey showing what he thought the results of the bill would be. There is a third edition of this act for the support of the clergy in the Maryland Diocesan Library printed in one column on both sides of a folio sheet measuring  $13 \times 8\frac{1}{2}$  inches.
