Maryland. Auditor-general (Robert Denny)

To the honourable the General Assembly of Maryland. Gentlemen, The auditor begs leave to lay before your honours the following accounts, viz. [8 lines] He has the honour to be, Gentlemen, Your obedient humble servant, Robert Denny, Auditor-general. Auditor's Office, Annapolis, November 5, 1801. [Annapolis, F. Green, 1801] broadside 31.5 x 19 cm. Without imprint.

A letter to accompany two reports: 1) the account of the Treasurer of the Western Shore and 2) an estimate of the state debt, both to Nov. 1, 1801.

Apparently the item referred to in the House of Delegates Votes & Proc., Nov. sess. 1801, p. 9 (Nov. 6) as follows: "The speaker laid before the house a letter from the auditor, enclosing accounts from the 1st November, 1800, to the 1st November, 1801; which was read." No order to print was found, but on the previous day (Nov. 5) the Committee of Claims had reported an examination of the accounts of Thomas Harwood, Treasurer of the Western Shore; and on the same day (Nov. 6) it was "Ordered, That the printer to the state strike one hundred copies for the use of the general assembly."—House V. & P., Nov. sess. 1801, p. 9.
