

on the Council of the Society terminated at that time. He served as a member of the Nominating Committee and was appointed a member of the ad hoc Committee on Uniform Archival Statistics. He participated in the teaching of the Sixteenth Annual Institute of Genealogical Research, July 21, 1966 and the Twenty-First Institute on Modern Archives Administration of the American University on June 14, 1967.

Mr. Beach had a share also in the Archives Institute course. Mr. Beach attended the Convention of the National Microfilm Association in Bal Harbour, Miami Beach, Florida, April 25-28, 1967. He also attended the Archivists meeting in Atlanta, again serving on the Records Management Committee. He also attended the annual meeting of the Clerks of Court Association of Maryland at Ocean City, Maryland, August 11-13, 1966. Mr. Brown accompanied Mr. Beach to all these meetings. Mr. Straubinger attended the annual meeting of the Register of Wills Association in Ocean City, July 7-9, 1966 and he also attended a seminar held by the same Association on Revision of the Probate Laws, in Baltimore, December 9, 1966.

Mr. White was much involved with educational matters throughout the year. He attended a meeting of the State Curriculum Co-ordinating Committee of the State Department of Education, of which he is a member, December 15, 1966. He also served as a member of the Anne Arundel County Board of Education on the Problems of the Twentieth Century Study Guide Revision Committee and the Civics Study Guide Revision Committee. These committees met March 9, March 14, and April 5, 1967. He then transferred his activities to problems of the Constitutional Convention and was appointed a member of the Maryland State Department of Education's Committee to prepare a Teachers' Resource Guide for the Constitutional Convention.

The Archivist also attended the Clerks of Court Meeting. He participated in the Indexing Project of Historic Annapolis and assisted in the accompanying seminar on Problems of Maryland History. He was reappointed for a term of four years to the Maryland Historical Trust and for a term of five years to the St. Mary's City Commission. He continued to serve as a member of the Maryland Historical Society Seminar in Maryland History and he was appointed a member of the Publication Committee of the same Society. He served the year as a member of the State Library Association Committee on the reprinting of Maryland materials.

It was a very full year.
