

Mr. Skordas taught two classes for the American University Archival Institute and the Genealogical Institute. Mrs. Jacobsen served on the Friends Historical Committee of the Baltimore Yearly Meeting and also spoke at Drayton Manor at a meeting of the Methodist Ministers of the Chestertown District. Mr. White spoke on the "Hall of Records Publication Program" before the Prince George's County Historical Society and before the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Maryland on the "James Brice Ledger" which was recently discovered.

The annual meeting of the Society of American Archivists was held in Washington, D.C. which provided the opportunity for many members of the professional staff to attend.

MORRIS L. RADOFF
Archivist and Records Administrator