

DR. C. HAROLD STEPTEAU

Who is now pastor of Bethel A. M. E. Church, Druid Hill Ave. and Lanvale St., has had wide experience in matters of church and state. He was a candidate at the General Conference of his church which met in Chicago, Ill. in May, 1928. He stands now ripe and ready for election in 1932 to the office of a Bishop.

REV. W. C. TONGUE

Born at West River, Md. 1867. There he received his early education; came to Baltimore, 1895, taking up his active work at Whatcoat M. E. Church. He pastored Arlington M. E. Church two years and on account of illness, he had to give up the work there. He is now back to his home church and is now teacher and leader of the Bible Class at Whatcoat M. E. Church, Pine and Franklin Streets. Come hear ye him.

GEORGE LEO FERGUSON

As a child in his home at Boston, Massachusetts where he was born November 27, 1897. Baltimore has been George's home since 1918 and he attends St. Mary's Episcopal Church on Orchard Street, of which he is a member. Further reference on page (?) Personal Stationery Mart.

REV. DANIEL W. HAYS, D. D.

Member of the Washington Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Vice-President, the Association for Handicapped. Residence, 1819 McCulloh St.