

F.

	Page.	No.
FAREWELL ADDRESS OF WASHINGTON— See Celebration of the twenty-second February.
FIRST MARYLAND REGIMENT—Resolution of thanks to Colonel John R. Kenley, of the, for early, prompt and distinguished services in the cause of his country,	365	5
FOREIGN INSURANCE AGENTS—Resolution directing the Comptroller to cause suits to be instituted against all, indebted to the State, &c.,	377	20
FUGITIVE SLAVES—Preamble and resolutions for the appointment of a joint committee, to proceed to Washington and request an interview with Major General McClellan, and solicit the adoption of some plan to prevent the admission of, within the lines of the Army,	362	2

G.

GOVERNMENT—Expressive of the earnest desire of Maryland, that the sentiments and purposes of the resolutions of Congress of the July extra session, be steadily kept in view and faithfully adhered to by all the departments of the, and by our Armies in the field,	364	3
---	-----	---