

shall hold office for two years or until his successor shall have been appointed and qualified, and the person so appointed shall have been a resident and voted in said County for not less than four years next preceding his appointment. The said Chief Game Warden shall receive a salary to be retained by him from moneys coming into his hands from the Clerk of the Court as aforesaid and the collection of fines for the violation of the fish and game laws of Caroline County, of $300.00, and the reasonable expenses of his office not to exceed $200.00 in any one year, provided the receipts from the aforesaid sources equal those amounts; and all other moneys so received to the amount of two hundred dollars, shall be used by him in procuring and propagating game in Caroline County, and the balance shall be paid to the Treasurer of Caroline County, to be put in the general fund. The said Chief Game Warden may be removed at any time by the County Commissioners of Caroline County, after it shall have been affirmatively made to appear upon written charges that said Chief Game Warden has neglected or improperly discharged the duties of his office. And the said Chief Game Warden so appointed shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe before any officer authorized to take or receive affidavits in Caroline County, the oath or affirmation prescribed by the sixth Section of first Article of the Constitution of this State, which oath or affirmation shall be recorded in the Clerk's Office of said Caroline County.

27-G. It shall be the duty of the Chief Game Warden of Caroline County, to report by itemized sworn account, to the County Commissioners of said Caroline County, on or before the first day of April in each and every year, the receipts and disbursements of all moneys coming into his hands under the provisions of this Act; and he shall file a bond in the penalty of $1,000.00, with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Caroline County, with surety or sureties to be approved by said Clerk, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such Chief Game Warden.

27-H. The Chief Game Warden of Caroline County shall, after the recording of the oath or affirmation to be so taken by him, be a conservator of the peace, and shall also have and exercise all the power and authority had, given to and exercised by game wardens appointed under the Public General Laws of this State.

27-I. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall, unless the penalty therefor has been otherwise pro-
