

CHAP. 66.

In case of future epidemics.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said Commissioners be, and they are hereby authorised and empowered in cases of like visitations by epidemics, in future, in said county, to provide for the payment of all expenses that may occur in procuring temporary hospitals, and the attendance to the poor of said county, who shall become the victims of such epidemic or epidemics.

CHAPTER 65.

Passed Feb. 18, 1831

A further supplement to an act entitled, an act empowering and directing the Commissioners of Cecil county to build two fire proof offices for the use of the Clerks and Register of Wills, for the safe keeping of the Records appertaining to their respective offices, in the town of Elkton.

Levy of $2,000.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Commissioners of Cecil county be, and they are hereby authorised at the ensuing assessment, to levy upon the assessable property of said county a further sum of two thousand dollars, if in their judgment it shall be deemed necessary, for the purpose of completing the offices mentioned in the act to which this is a supplement; and building thereto an office for the Sheriff of said county.

CHAPTER 66.

Passed Feb. 18, 1833

An act to repeal an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter eighty-three, and for other purposes.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, that the compensation as now allowed by law to the Judges and Clerks of Election, is not an adequate compensation for their services:—Therefore,

Repeal.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter eighty-three, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Compensation to judges and clerks of election.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners of Baltimore county be, and they are hereby authorised, to al-