

CONTENTS.

	PAGE.
CHAP. 1. GENERAL GEOGRAPHY—Name—situation—Boundary—Extent,	1
2. NATIONAL DIVISIONS—Bays—Rivers—Mountains—Islands,—Samps, Face of the Country—Mineralogy,	5
3. POLITICAL CHARACTER, previous to, during and subsequent to the Revolution—Patriotism,	18
4. STATE SOVREIGNTY—Remarks upon our forms of General and State Governments. The People essentially SOVEREIGN.	31
5. FEDERAL RELATIONS—Peculiar position of Maryland as a member of the Union—Territorial grade—Representation—Influence in the choice of the Executive of the Nation—Unfriendly operation of the Electoral law—Remarks on the Political influence of the State,	38
6. FEDERAL RELATIONS—Delegates to the first Congress—Authority and Instructions—Incidents relating to the Declaration of Independence—Delegation to succeeding Congresses. List of Senators from Maryland, under the present Constitution, Members of Congress from Maryland—1827—1828, Marshals, Collectors, &c.	50 64 65 —
7. STATE OFFICERS—Executive—List of Governors from the first Colonial Government, Election—Powers, and Compensation of the Governor,	66 68