Each of these bills will be vetoed because its companion measure has been signed.

NATIONAL GUARD.

(Chapter 41)

Senate Bill No. 124 changes the membership fees of honorary members of the Maryland National Guard so as to make the same not more than $10.00 per annum, instead of not less than $10.00 per annum, as now provided by law.

The Adjutant General advises me that the Colonel of the Fifth Infantry is so strongly of the opinion that the effect of this measure would be injurious to the Fifth Regiment, that he, the Adjutant General, has concluded to ask me not to ap-
