CHAPTER 81.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 6 of Article 59 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Lunatics and Insane," sub-title "Insanity as a Defense in Criminal Cases," as said section was amended by Chapter 436 of the Acts of 1931, providing for the determination of the question of insanity and lunacy where insanity or lunacy is alleged in defense of any person indicted for a crime, offense or misdemeanor.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 6 of Article 59 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, (1924 Edition), title "Lunatics and Insane," sub-title "Insanity as a Defense in Criminal Cases," as said section was amended by Chapter 436 of the Acts of 1931, be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

6. When it is desired to interpose the defense of insanity or lunacy on behalf of one charged with a crime, offense or misdemeanor, the defendant, his or her counsel, or other person authorized by law to appear and act for him or her, shall, at the time of pleading to the indictment or information, unless the court for good cause shown shall otherwise order, file a plea in writing, in addition to the plea or pleas required or permitted by law, alleging that the defendant was insane or lunatic at the time of the com-
