No. 12.

Preamble and Resolutions in relation to the repeal of the Sub-Treasury Law. Passed Mar. 2, 1841.

WHEREAS, the policy of the general government in relation to the currency and passage of the Sub-Treasury law by Congress, has had a most injurious effect upon the public finances, and has greatly aided in bringing about the present embarrassments of the country—therefore, with a view of getting rid of so pernicious a measure,
