

CHAP. 8. thereby promoted, to authorise and permit the said Eleanor Chiswell, the widow and administratrix of the said John A. Chiswell, and natural guardian of his said minor children, to erect such buildings on the lands of the said John A. Chiswell as the said orphans' court shall deem necessary and proper, at the joint expense of the said Eleanor Chiswell and said minors, in such just and reasonable proportions as the said orphans' court shall determine, and to allow to the said Eleanor Chiswell in the settlement of her accounts with said court, a credit for such sum, being part of the expense of the erection of said building, as they shall determine to be the proper proportion of the said minor children in the whole amount thereof.

And allow a credit

CHAPTER 8.

Passed Jan. 8, 1841. An act to incorporate the Library Company of the Baltimore Bar.

Individuals incorporated SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John V. L. McMahon, Hugh Davey Evans, I. Nevitt Steele, James Mason Cambell, George William Brown, George W. Dobbin and their associates and successors, be and they are hereby created a body corporate, under the name and style of "The Library Company of the Baltimore Bar," for the sole and exclusive purpose of establishing and continuing a law library, and that they have power to enact all necessary by-laws for the regulation of the affairs of said company.

Name and style

In force

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this act shall endure for thirty years from the date of its passage, and that the right is hereby expressly reserved to the General Assembly of Maryland to repeal this act of incorporation.

The minor children of the said John A. Chiswell would be read and empowered, if in their judgment the interest of that the orphans' court of Montgomery county be authorized to be created by the General Assembly of Maryland.