

CHAPTER 6.

CHAP. 7.

An act to revive and continue such acts of the General Assembly as expired with the session of the last General Assembly, and such as would expire with the present session thereof. Passed Feb. 4, 1840.

WHEREAS no act of the General Assembly of this State, passed at its last session, continuing such acts, as from the limitations thereof did expire with the last session—therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That such acts as expired with the session of the last General Assembly except such parts as shall have been repealed, be and the same are hereby revived, re-enacted and declared to be in full force until the end of the next General Assembly, and in the same manner, with the same legal effect and operation in law, as if such acts had been continued at the last session of the General Assembly, until the end of the session of the next General Assembly of this State. Acts revived.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts and doings under color of such acts so expiring, shall receive the like construction, and have the like operation and force as if such acts had been continued at the last session of the General Assembly. To have force and effect, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That such acts as would expire with the present session of the General Assembly, be and the same are hereby continued to the end of the session of the next General Assembly of this State. Acts continued
