No. 3.

Passed Jan. 24, 1838, Resolutions relating to the east wing of Barracks, in Fredericktown, Frederick county.

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William D. Jenks and Lewis Ramsburg be, and they are hereby authorised and privileged to use the east wing of the Barracks in Fredericktown, as a cocoonery, or for any other purpose connected with their business of growing or manufacturing silk, and to have all privileges, access, ingress or egress to and from the same, and all control over the said property of the State during the pleasure of the General Assembly of this State.

Resolved, That the said east wing of the Barracks in Fredericktown is hereby, from and after the first day of April next, placed in the charge and keeping and under the control of the said W. D. Jenks and Lewis Ramsburg, who are to use the same for the purpose of their silk business, and to keep the same in repair whilst in their charge.

Resolved, That the privileges in these resolutions granted, may at any time hereafter be revoked or annulled by a resolution of the General Assembly of Maryland.

Resolved, That all acts or resolutions of the General Assembly of Maryland, so far as they, or any part of them, are inconsistent with the privileges herein granted, be, and the same are hereby repealed, rescinded and annulled.
