

CHAPTER 2

(House Bill 340)

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Sub-section (4) (b) of Section 99, of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1947 Supplement), title "Public Education," sub-title "Teachers' Retirement System," adjusting the benefits allowed those teachers retired on disability.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sub-section (4) (b) of Section 99 of Article 77, of the Annotated Code of Maryland, (1947 Supplement), title "Public Education," sub-title, "Teachers' Retirement System," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments to read as follows:

99.

(4) (b) A pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to [ninety per centum of] one-seventieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service, if such retirement allowance exceeds one-quarter of his average final compensation; otherwise a pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one-quarter of his average final compensation, provided, however, that no such allowance shall exceed [ninety per centum of] one-seventieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years which would be creditable to him were his service to continue until the attainment of age 60.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1951.

This bill was passed at the 1951 session of the General Assembly and was vetoed by the Governor on April 27, 1951. Under Section 17, Article 2 of the State Constitution, as amended by Chapter 714 of the Acts of 1949, bills vetoed after adjournment of the Legislature must be returned by the Governor to the next regular or special session of the Legislature.
