

accordingly, it shall be the duty of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of Frederick, and they are hereby required to apply and pay out of the said proceeds, and rents or tolls, the interest and principal of the said sums and debt, as the same shall become due; and the said proceeds, and rents or tolls, shall be applied exclusively to such use until the said loans are fully paid and satisfied, and the rents or tolls for the use of said water shall be exacted and maintained at the present rates, until the said loans and debt shall be extinguished.

CHAP. 7.
Duty of Mayor, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to supersede the authority of the corporate authorities to levy and collect taxes, to discharge all or any part of said loans, if the same should become necessary.

Nothing construed to supersede authority of corporate authorities.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall go into operation and take effect immediately from and after its passage.

Take effect after its passage.

CHAPTER 7.

An act to authorise appeals in cases of Mandamus.

Passed Jan. 20, 1846.

WHEREAS, doubts exist whether, by the laws of this State, there can be an appeal to the Court of Appeals from any decision of the county courts in cases of mandamus—therefore,

Preamble.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, in all cases of appeal which are now pending in the Court of Appeals, or which may be hereafter taken from the decision of any county court in this State, in cases of mandamus, the said Court of Appeals shall entertain the said appeal, and hear and decide the same, subject to the same restrictions and limitations which exist in taking and trying appeals in other cases; and said appeals shall be heard and determined by the said Court of Appeals at the first term thereof after such appeals are taken.

Court of Appeals to hear and determine cases of mandamus.