

CHAPTER 9.

CHAP. 10.

An act supplemental to an act entitled, an act to extend to Baltimore County the provisions of an act relating to the liens of Mechanics and others on buildings, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and twenty-six.

Passed Jan. 20, 1846.

WHEREAS, considerable doubt exists as regards the rights of persons not having claims to the amount of fifty dollars, for work done, or materials furnished for, or about the construction of any buildings in the county of Baltimore, to file and record their claims of lien, under the provisions of the act of the General Assembly, enacted originally for the benefit of the city of Baltimore, at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, chapter two hundred and five, entitled, an act relating to the liens of mechanics and others, on buildings; and whereas, said original act was extended to Baltimore county, by an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and forty-four, chapter two hundred and twenty-six; therefore,

Preamble.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person or persons who have, or may hereafter have claims for work done, or materials furnished for, or about the erection or construction of any building in Baltimore county, which have heretofore been, or may hereafter be filed and recorded under the provisions of the original act aforesaid, and to which this act is a supplement, such person or persons are hereby declared to be entitled to all the benefits and advantages given by the said original act of Assembly, without regard to the amount of their respective claims; provided, all other requisitions of the original act be complied with.

Persons having claims recorded be entitled to all benefits, &c.

Proviso.

CHAPTER 10.

An act to incorporate the Trustees of Plumb Point Academy in Calvert County.

Passed Jan. 15, 1846.
