

CHAP. 332.

said inquest shall be returned to the clerk of said county, to be by him recorded at the expense of said company, and the valuation expressed in said inquisition shall be paid by said president and directors to the owners of said property so valued, or his legal representative before said president and directors shall proceed to use the same.

Penalty for obstructing.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That if any person shall alter or change or in any manner obstruct or encroach on the said road or any part thereof, or cut down and destroy any turnpike gate, or cut down, destroy, deface or remove any mile stones set upon said road, or put or place any rubbish, dirt, logs, stones or any other obstruction in said road, or make any pit or hole therein, such person may be indicted in Allegany county court, and being thereof convicted, shall be fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court, according to the nature of the offence, and the president and directors shall cause any obstructions or nuisances on the said road to be removed, and shall restore the same to its proper state and condition.

To report to Governor as soon as road is completed.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That as soon as the road shall be completed in the manner directed by this act, the president and directors shall forthwith transmit to the Governor a full and fair account of the cost of said road and the amount of tolls received previous to its completion, and shall annually thereafter transmit to the Governor a yearly account of the tolls received and of the expenses incurred on said road.

To erect toll gates and to charge toll.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said president and directors may erect or cause to be erected one toll gate on said turnpike for every three miles and a half of said road that may be completed as herein directed, and may charge, take, collect and receive for passing any one of said gates for every coach or other four wheeled riding carriage, the driver, passengers and horses, not exceeding eight cents; for every wagon or other carriage of burthen drawn by horses, mules or oxen, not exceeding two cents per horse, mule or ox; for every horse and rider not exceeding three cents; for every single horse, camel, ass or mule not exceeding one cent; and for black cattle not exceeding one-half cent; for every score of sheep or hogs at the rate of five cents the score.

Rights vested.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said road and tolls shall be and are hereby vested in the said corporation and their successors forever.

Penalty for evading.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That if any person shall drive any carriage, coach, wagon or cart, or other vehi-