

RESOLUTIONS.

and injurious discrimination between the different States of the confederacy, exhibited by the above recited facts, yet desiring to believe it has so far been rather the effect of accident than of deliberate purpose, she will content herself now with solemnly protesting against its longer continuance, and the expression of the hope that the present session of Congress will not be permitted to pass without the removal of so just a cause for complaint, any longer continuance of which she cannot but feel as not only a grievous wrong, but also as a reflection upon her honor.

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to transmit a copy of these resolutions to each of the Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States from this State, with the request that they may be respectfully laid before each of the honorable bodies of which they are members.
