2. And be it enacted, That the street aforesaid, shall not be extended or opened through the property of any individual without his consent first had and obtained, nor without the consent of the trustees of the academy, on their being satisfied that no material injury will be sustained to the lot on which the academy is built; Provided any expenses that may accrue in extending and opening the said Record street, be defrayed by those who may voluntarily subscribe for the same.

CHAPTER 46.

Passed Jan. 12, 1824. An act to authorise John F. Gray to receive one sixth for toll at his mill when the same shall be built in Charles county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly, by a petition from sundry citizens of Charles county, that it would be a great convenience and advantage to the petitioners, neighbors of John F. Gray of said county, if a mill was erected upon a stream running through the land of the said Gray; And whereas the said John F. Gray cannot incur the expense of building a mill for the present rate of toll established by law; and pray the legislature to pass a law authorising the said John F. Gray to receive one sixth for toll at the said mill when built, and the said prayer appearing reasonable—
Therefore,

Toll.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawfull for the said John F. Gray, to ask, demand and receive any toll for grinding any grain except wheat, at the mill to be erected by the said John F. Gray, Provided the same shall not exceed one sixth part thereof, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.
