Passed December 22.

An ACT concerning Forest-street in Baltimore-town, in Baltimore county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it has been represented to this general assembly, by the petition of the owners of lots, and inhabitants, of Forest-street, and others, in Baltimore-town aforesaid, that by an act of assembly, passed in the year seventeen hundred and fifty-three, for making an addition to Baltimore-town aforesaid, that Forest-street was marked and located, on a plot of said addition, for the width of sixty-six feet, and that previous to the laying out the said addition, the proprietors of the said land did lay out the same only of the width of eighteen feet, and that the street was built on and improved by the said owners of lots, of the width of eighteen feet, and that it never was extended or opened of the width of sixty-six feet agreeably to the plot thereof, and that it would be ruinous to many, and extremely injurious to all, the said owners of said lots, if the said street should be extended to sixty-six feet as laid out, without benefiting individuals or the town at large; and the prayer of the said petitioners appearing reasonable,

Width of Forest-street.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Forest-street aforesaid shall be taken and deemed of the width of eighteen feet, beginning at Baltimore-street, and running from thence northerly to the end of said street, as it was originally laid out by the proprietors aforesaid, previous to the addition of said town, in the year seventeen hundred and fifty-three.

To be for ever deemed 18 feet wide.

III. And be it enacted, That the said street shall be for ever hereafter deemed and taken only of the width of eighteen feet, and that the owners and proprietors of lots of ground shall have the same right and benefit in the same as if the said street
