Amendment No. 12—Following line 60 of subsection (i) on page 5 of the third reading file bill insert the following new section:

“Section 2. And be it further enacted, That before this Act becomes effective it shall be submitted to a referendum of the qualified voters of the State of Maryland at the time of the regular state-wide elections in the month of November, 1962. The Board of Supervisors of Elections in each political subdivision of this State and all other officials and employees of the State and of its political subdivisions shall do such things as are necessary and proper to place this Act on referendum at that time. On the ballots or voting machine labels there shall be printed the words ‘For Judicial Reapportionment of the House of Delegates’ and the words ‘Against Judicial Reapportionment of the House of Delegates’. If a majority of the persons voting on this question vote ‘for’ judicial reapportionment of the House of Delegates, this Act shall become effective as of December 1, 1962. If a majority of the persons voting on this question vote ‘against’ judicial reapportionment of the House of Delegates this Act is null and void and of no effect whatsoever.”
