

House Bill No. 126 pertains to the method of determining the financial condition of insurance companies.

Senate Bill No. 42 was passed during the 1962 Session and was identical to House Bill No. 126. I have already placed my signature on Senate Bill No. 42 and, therefore, find it necessary to veto House Bill No. 126.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

(s) J. MILLARD TAWES,
Governor.

House Bill No. 174—State Bonds for College of Notre Dame

AN ACT to authorize the creation of a State debt in the aggregate amount of Seven Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars ($750,000) for the purpose of aiding in the construction of a new science building on the campus of the College of Notre Dame of Maryland, in Baltimore City, subject to the requirements that the said College, on or before January 1, 1964, shall have obtained elsewhere at least an equal and matching sum for the same purposes; and providing generally for the issue and sale of certificates of indebtedness evidencing this loan.

April 6, 1962.

Honorable Perry O. Wilkinson
Speaker of the House
State House
Annapolis, Maryland

Dear Mr. Speaker:

I have today vetoed House Bill 174, and in accordance with the provisions of Article 2, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I am returning this bill along with my veto message.

This bill authorizes a State loan to be known as the "College of Notre Dame of Maryland Loan of 1962" in the amount of $750,000.

Senate Bill 134, which is identical in its terms with this bill, and accordingly accomplishes the same result, was signed into law on March 23, 1962.

In order to prevent any duplicity, I feel it necessary to veto House Bill 174.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

(s) J. MILLARD TAWES,
Governor.
