By the President, by request:

PETITION OF FRANK A. BROWN, ET AL.,
OF CARROLL COUNTY, MD.

BALTIMORE, February 5, 1916.

To the President of the Senate.

SIR:

I take the pleasure of corresponding with you pertaining to business for the State of Maryland in Carroll county in the District below Westminster into Reistertown and crosswise into Fairview and Districts thereof. The writer owns and controls through twenty-four partners, all of the water available in Carroll county, foundation of the same; and owns majority of the grey stone available in this lower section. These twenty-four gentlemen, we are all partners upon these goods which I offer to the State of Maryland for the improvement of this lower section, viz., as above.

I, Frank A. Brown, with authority from these twenty-four gentlemen in due process of law of the State of Maryland,
