

WHEREAS, The late United States Senator Millard E. Tydings who passed away on February 9, 1961, was a distinguished native son of Harford County, through which the Northeastern Expressway passes; and

WHEREAS, Senator Tydings served the people of the County, State and nation for many years, presiding over this House of Delegates as Speaker in 1920, serving as Representative in Congress for two terms, and as United States Senator from Maryland for four terms; and

WHEREAS, He was recognized as an outstanding statesman in all levels of government and he was widely known for his loyalty, achievements, dedicated services, abilities and untiring efforts on behalf of his country; and

WHEREAS, It would be a just memorial to an outstanding citizen and statesman of Maryland to name this highway as the Millard E. Tydings Expressway; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That we request the State Roads Commission to name the new Northeastern Expressway as the Millard E. Tydings Expressway in memory of the late United States Senator from Maryland; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this Resolution are sent to the Governor of Maryland and to the Chairman-Director of the State Roads Commission.

Approved February 26, 1963.

No. 3

(House Joint Resolution 9)

House Joint Resolution expressing deepest sympathies over the untimely passing of Thomas J. S. Waxter.

The members of the General Assembly of Maryland learned with shock and sorrow of the untimely passing of the Honorable Thomas J. S. Waxter, Director of the State Department of Public Welfare.

Mr. Waxter had a long and fruitful career in the public service. After having served as an attorney he was appointed to the Judiciary in Baltimore City. Later, he entered public welfare work and for an extended period of years was Director of the Department of Public Welfare in the city. About ten years ago he succeeded to the office of Director of the State Department of Public Welfare and held that position until his untimely death.

Mr. Waxter, known to his friends as "Tom" and more frequently as "Jake," made a career of public service in the highest sense of those words. In his personal demeanor he was friendly and open, showing always a broad tolerance and understanding for the problems of his office and for the needs of the people of Maryland.
