

Section 42A on Page 2 of the third reading file bill and insert in lieu thereof the following:

“(i) If Baltimore County, as a result of any Federal census, becomes entitled to a different number of Senators from seven or Delegates from twenty-two, then the provisions of this section shall become null and void, and such Senators and Delegates as shall thereafter be allocated to Baltimore County shall be apportioned to sub-districts under the general law of the State applicable to legislative apportionment.

“(j) Nothing in this section affects the election, tenure, powers, or duties of Senators or Delegates in office at the time these events occur, for the remainder of the terms in which they are then serving.

“(k) This section is intended to implement the provisions of general reapportionment legislation enacted at the Special Session of the General Assembly of Maryland beginning October 11, 1965.”

Which was read.
