

System." Be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

113.

(4) Upon retirement for disability a member shall receive a service retirement allowance if he has attained age 60, otherwise he shall receive a disability retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and

(b) A pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one-seventieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service, if such retirement allowance exceeds twenty-five seventieths [one-quarter] of his average final compensation; otherwise a pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to twenty-five seventieths [one-quarter] of his average final compensation, provided, however, that no such allowance shall exceed one-seventieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years which would be creditable to him were his service to continue until the attainment of age 60.

(c) Any member who retired under the provisions of this subsection prior to July 1, 1966, shall be paid a pension computed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) above commencing July 1, 1966.

SEC. 3 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1966.

Approved May 6, 1966.
