

inclusive, and from number three hundred and fifty-nine to number three hundred and sixty-five inclusive;

Also, the engrossed resolutions from number one to number sixty inclusive;

Were severally read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

The clerk of the Senate returned said bills and resolutions, severally endorsed, "read and assented to."

And delivered the engrossed bills of the Senate from number three hundred and forty, to number three hundred and fifty-eight inclusive;

Which were severally read, assented to, and returned to the Senate.

Messrs. Phelps and Arringdale, of the joint committee, on the part of this House, to wait on His Excellency the Governor, and to invite his attendance in the Senate Chamber, for the purpose of signing and sealing such of the engrossed bills passed at the present session, as have not been signed, reported, that the said committee had discharged the duty assigned them, and that the Governor gave for answer, that he would accordingly attend in the Senate Chamber at the time appointed for the purpose above mentioned.

A deputation from the Senate being announced, Messrs. Riccaud and Gaiher, members of that body, appeared within the bar of the House, and informed the Speaker, that His Excellency the Governor, was attending in the Senate Chamber, and requested the attendance of this House, to see him sign and seal the laws.

The Speaker left the Chair, and attended by the members of this House, went to the Senate Chamber, and there presented the engrossed bills to the Governor, who signed the same, and affixed the great seal thereto, in the presence of both Houses.

The Speaker with the rest of the members, returned and resumed the Chair.

The House adjourned sine die.

Attest,

GEORGE G. BREWER, Clerk.

The committee on Engrossed Bills, have examined the engrossed bills of the House, from number three hundred and thirty-five inclusive, and from number three hundred and fifty-one inclusive, and from number one to number sixty inclusive, and compared the same with the originals as passed by the House, at the present session, and that they have found the same to be truly engrossed.

All which is respectfully submitted.
LYLE GRIFFITH, Chairman.
Which was twice read and concurred in.
