

transcript of any proceedings conducted incident to the habeas corpus petition unless the application for leave to appeal is granted, in which event the court may order the preparation of a transcript of any proceedings related thereto. The Court of Special Appeals may deny the application for leave to appeal or, if it grants the same, may affirm, reverse, or modify the judgment of the lower court granting or denying the relief sought by the writ. In the event the Court of Special Appeals determines that the lower Court's judgment was wrong in admitting or refusing to admit to bail, or in setting the amount of the bail, it may, in acting upon the application for leave to appeal, determine the amount of bail which would be proper and its determination in this regard shall be binding on the lower court, until and unless a change of circumstances warrants a different decision. There shall be no right to apply for certiorari to the Court of Appeals from the action taken by the Court of Special Appeals on the application for leave to appeal.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That Section 5A (6) of Article 5 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Replacement Volume) (1971 Supplement), title "Appeals," subtitle "Appeals to Court of Appeals and Court of Special Appeals," is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

(6) All cases or proceedings in which any application for writ of habeas corpus has been granted or denied and from which a right of appeal or review is granted by Section 25 of Article 41, [or] by Section 19 of Article 42 or by Section 20 of Article 42 of this Code or by any other laws of this State.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall apply only to habeas corpus petitions filed after the effective date of this Act.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1972.

Approved May 26, 1972.
