EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

June 1, 1973.

Honorable William S. James
President of the Senate
State House
Annapolis, Maryland

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed Senate Bill 374.

This bill provides that the various rules, regulations or standards of the several agencies of the Executive Department shall be invalid until submitted to the Committee on Administrative, Executive and Legislative Review.

House Bill 436, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 24, 1973, accomplishes the same purposes as Senate Bill 374 and is more clearly worded. Furthermore, the sponsor of Senate Bill 374 has advised my office that he believes the language of House Bill 436 to be preferable to that of Senate Bill 374, and that, therefore, the Senate Bill should be vetoed.

Consequently, I have decided to veto Senate Bill 374.

Sincerely,

MARVIN MANDEL,
Governor.
